

ACTIVITIES FOR PRINCIPAL FOR A DAY

While shadowing all of the principal's activities is perfectly acceptable, here are a few ideas of how you can involve your Principal for a Day in the life of your school. Do try to follow a normal work schedule so that the PFAD can observe the scope of your responsibilities.

- Have breakfast and lunch in the cafeteria with students and/or faculty.
- Read morning announcements or appear on school's morning TV news.
- Lead the Pledge of Allegiance.
- Read to classes.
- Visit classrooms.
- Meet with the Student Council.
- Examine school's technology labs.
- Attend a special activity such as band, chorus, PE demonstration.
- Help supervise the playground.
- Teach a lesson on his/her career.
- Visit parent resource room and meet with parents.
- Sit in on meetings with parents (with their permission).
- Visit the after-school program.
- Visit the preschool or Head Start program at your school.
